The RALC Web User Group has been meeting approximately once a quarter on rotating campuses as schedules allow. The meetings in 2012:

- April 26, 2012 at JSRCC – Parham Campus Library. Amanda Hartman talked about using LibCal and LibAnalytics at JSRCC. Sherod Moses discussed the Primo implementation at VSU.

- September 12, 2012 at VSU – Memorial Library. Laura Horne-Popp, Andy Morton and Anna Creech presented on UR’s use of LibStats, LibAnalytics and other Springshare tools.

- Next meeting: January 22, 2013 at University of Richmond – topic TBD.

The User Group meetings usually have about 8-12 attendees. Institutions represented at the meetings have included the Library of Virginia, Virginia State University, VCU, UR, Randolph Macon, Union, John Tyler, J. S. Reynolds, and Henrico Public. Each meeting is coordinated by librarians at the host campus.

The RALC Web User Group is always excited to welcome new members to the fold. Anyone interested in joining the Web User Group can contact me at erwhite@vcu.edu to be added to the listserv.
